WHAT to WATCH A day-to-day guide to notable programs*

Wednesday 3.28

8-9PM

Friday Night Lights

NBC, TV-PG

Coach Taylor wants the guys to remember why they love football. Ah, the softer side of tackling.

9-10PM

Criminal Minds

CBS, TV-PG-DLV

Someone is going after the prostitutes in Washington, D.C., and for once, it's not politicians. Just kidding, you pure and sinless Capitol Hillers. (R)

Season Premiere

10-11PM

What Not to Wear

BBC America, TV-PG

New hosts Lisa Butcher and Mica Paris want to explore how a person's clothing affects their psychology. A primer: culottes = lack of dignity; bustiers = daddy issues.

Host Ken Dychtwald

9-11PM*

The Boomer Century

PBS, TV-G

This doc about the achievements of the baby-boom generation and how they will spend their autumnal years combines historical footage with contributions from Oliver Stone, Erica Jong, Rob Reiner, and others. The big unanswered question: Why an examination of White House press secretary Tony Snow's sideline as a rock flutist? B- —Clark Collis *check local listings
